Instructions for National Uprising

This message is from Central Committee for HAKHA Movement to People of Iran

The goal of the uprising by brave People of Ancient Land of Iran is downfall of the tyrant Mullahs, separation of religion from state, establishment of freedom, honoring human rights and creating circumstances for a free referendum so People of Iran can vote for their future form of government.

Those born in sacred land of Iran are kind and forgiving and national uprising of People of Iran is founded on this principle. Therefore national HAKHA Movement expects that People of Iran with relying on these characteristics follow the below instructions for achieving victory.

1. All Iranians outside Iran are advised in the morning of June 16th, 2005 to gather at embassies and interest sections of these invaders of Iran and take over these locations and on behalf of people designate the highest ranking members of these establishments that are not Mullahs or their assignees, to be in charge. The employees of these locations have to continue with their duties until further notice. People of Iran expects from the leaders of other countries and their police forces to assist people in this matter.
2. People of Iran on June 16th by gathering in streets and major squares of towns and cities in Iran, will start their movement for bringing down the tyrant Mullahs and they will not stop until complete victory.
3. People of Iran, in all cities, including Tehran should move in groups and free from the hands of tyrant Mullahs, the parliament and police and revolutionary guards stations across the country and put in charge the highest ranking employee of these locations. People should know that members of law enforcement forces, revolutionary guards, soldiers, basij forces and employees of these agencies are children of Iran and will cooperate with people.
4. After freeing police and revolutionary guards stations, people should move towards local Radio and TV stations and free those institutions from the hands of Mullahs.
5. People and law enforcement forces are advised to protect banks, public offices, palaces, museums, libraries, education centers, universities, factories, Department of Water and Power, Gas Company and private buildings and prevent any take over or destructive acts.
